

Fictions

Organized by Adam Marnie

January 9-February 7, 2015

Opening reception: January 9, 2015 6-8pm

Derek Eller gallery is pleased to present Fictions organized by Adam Marnie.

The first fiction of this show is its title. These artists pull directly from the world around them, each in relentless investigation. Utilitarian and didactic exercises are given priority over the inward gaze. Exacting contours divide the diverse works from each other, which operate as tips of icebergs moving through a spectrum of languages, as an array of portals into kaleidoscopic excess. Themes as divergent as memory, confession, forensics, advertising, sexuality and authorship are butted up against one another, offering complex paradigms of truth and falsehood with a photographic hinge.

Michel Auder
Aaron Aujla
Heather Bursch
Corey Escoto
Adam Gordon
Albert Herter
Christopher K. Ho
Thatcher Keats
Justin Lieberman
Rose Marcus
Adam Marnie
NOWORK
Eileen Quinlan
Aura Rosenberg
Patricia Treib
Fred Wilson
Matt Wycoff
Kevin Zucker

Fictions is organized in conjunction with the second issue of Adam Marnie's magazine F, which will be released at Printed Matter on January 22, 2015. A performance by Adam Gordon will occur on January 9th, from 1-5pm in Midtown.

Derek Eller Gallery is located at 615 West 27th Street, between 11th and 12th Avenues. Hours are Tuesday - Saturday from 11am - 6pm. For further information or images, please contact the gallery at 212.206.6411 or visit www.derekeller.com