

DEREK ELLER GALLERY

For Immediate Release:

Dan Fischer

More Love Hours Than Can Ever Be Repaid

November 18 - December 20, 2003

Opening Reception: Thursday, November 20, 6 - 8 pm

Dan Fischer discovered the world of contemporary art not in museums or galleries, but through magazine and textbook reproductions. In homage to his art stars, he renders fantastically detailed graphite drawings of well known works of contemporary art and images of artists in their studios. His dazzling handmade copies of works by artists such as Robert Gober, Cindy Sherman, Shirin Neshat, and Lynda Benglis transcend mere appropriation, each having their own unique and wondrous aura.

Dan Fischer's work was recently seen in Living With Duchamp at The Tang Teaching Museum and Art Gallery at Skidmore College and is currently included in "Process and Possibility: Contemporary Drawings at the MFAH", at The Museum of Fine Arts, Houston. This will be his second solo exhibition.

Derek Eller Gallery is located at 526 West 25th Street, 2nd floor. Hours are Tuesday - Saturday from 11am - 6pm. For further information or visuals, please contact the gallery at 212.206.6411 or visit www.derekeller.com.
