

DEREK ELLER GALLERY

North Room: André Ethier

April 22 - May 21, 2005

Opening Reception: Friday, April 22, 6 - 8 pm

André Ethier's paintings explore the racial and sexual stereotypes found in fairy tales and religious mythology. Rather than illustrating specific stories, he invents provocative open-ended narratives that touch upon latent sexuality, wonderment, and xenophobia.

André Ethier lives and works in Toronto. This will be his first show with the gallery.

Derek Eller Gallery is located at 526 West 25th Street, 2nd floor. Hours are Tuesday - Saturday from 11am - 6pm. For further information or visuals, please contact the gallery at 212.206.6411 or visit www.derekeller.com.
